The decisions you make today will impact what your family looks like tomorrow.

Scripture: Joshua 24:15

"But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Story: Stephanie's story

Stephanie came from an impoverished family deep in the heart of the Mississippi Delta. She was born 7th of 8 children (5 brothers and 2 sisters). Raised in a single parent home she had little relationship with her father. For her seeing a father engaged in any family was a rare thing. She only had one cousin, in her whole family, whose father was active in the home. Both of her sisters and 3 of her brothers had children outside of marriage. At her school it was common for girls to have children in their teens, it was almost expected! Stephanie refused to settle to live the same life. Her vision was bigger! She accepted Christ as her LORD and Savior in the 10th grade and she claimed these Scriptures, Jeremiah 29:11 and Matthew 6:33, as promises of God over her life. Stephanie was the first in her family to graduate with a bachelor's degree. She is now a High School basketball coach and has positively impacted hundreds of young lives. Many of the youth in our society have very poor examples set by their parents. Those that have good parents should be thankful. Those that have poor examples are NOT doomed to repeat the mistakes of their parents. Start today to envision the type of family you want! Don't settle for less than Gods best.
